

Technical Description Template

Audience and Purpose	Who will read this description and why? A consumer who wants to lift his computer screens to their eye level. The consumer has a computer and understand that their posture will be better if they get this product. The consumer who will read this to understand how to set up this product.
Definition and Function	What is it? What does it do? What is its function/purpose? It's a monitor lifter. It lifts the monitor to the user's eye level. To provide a better posture to user. To reduce eye strain on the user. Increases productivity.
Overview	Describe its overall appearance (shape, size, color, etc.) It's a table that is 5 inch high with legs. It is black color and the user could reduce/increase the height
Components and Explanations	Describe the component parts (chose most relevant features) and explain how they work together; try to find the most logical way to organize this explanation. The user can increase/ reduce the height of the table by swapping the leg blocks. It is wide enough to keep the monitor steady and secure
Visuals	What kind of illustrative graphics will you use? Where? <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Diagrams Diagrams to show how to remove leg blocks</li><li>• Photographs</li></ul>

	Photographs to show what the product looks like in packet and what it looks like when assemble. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Cut-away views Not relevant for the reader</li><li>• Exploded views Not relevant for the reader</li></ul>
Conclusion	Do you need to offer any further information? History? Warnings? Context? Costs? etc. Warnings may be needed as it heavy and could hurt a child Another warning may be needed to tell the reader to keep it 4 cm away from edge
References	Any sources used, or supplemental sources to suggest Not researched yet.